

Moodle Moot 2010 Workshop Programme

Wednesday 14th April (Morning)

Morning Parallel Workshop Programme 11.30 - 12.30

Workshop 1	G16	Workshop 2	G22	Workshop 3	G30	Workshop 4	G26	Workshop 5	Beveridge Hall
Moodle Showcase This workshop will be an opportunity to see the range of exciting work by practitioners from across various sectors and representing a range of learning providers. Presenters: Carol Wrycraft - The assignment Revolution using Moodle at MidKent College Antonella Veccia - Using metacourses to build up a community of learners. Dominik Lukes - Supplementing Moodle interaction through live and recorded webinars Irene Krechowiecka, Using Moodle to Support 14-19 programme		Integrating Moodle Presenters: Gerrard Shaw - Using Moodle as a student portal. Lynn Clark and Stephan Green (PR) - Reconstructing Moodle Fehmi Hanoglu - Moodle and the e-ILP: A versatile Tool		Using Moodle for assessment Presenters: Tim Hunt - What's New in the Moodle quiz? Phil Butcher - Assessment for learning: why we're altering the quiz Tony Gardner-Medwin - Self-tests and CBM as learning tools - putting learners in charge		Kick starting Moodle Presenters: Farzana Latif - Work based learning - maintaining credibility Andrew Poulton - Hardest to help: using Moodle in welfare to work Katherine Voorvelt - Trials, tears and triumphs - a tale of two functional HE application managers and their Moodle affairs		Where's the A-Z? Driving Moodle forward A key conference theme is how use of Moodle in HE has moved from specialist small scale examples led by a band of enthusiasts to institution-wide solutions at the heart of the learning and teaching strategy. Presenters: Nitin Palmer, Bath University Alison Pope, Royal Holloway University of London, Matt Jenner, UCL	